FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

In October, Masons in Virginia celebrate the Founders of Freemasonry – and we endeavor to honor the work they started here in Virginia in 1778 by re-dedicating ourselves to supporting those who came before us to build and maintain Freemasonry as an institution.

One way to reaffirm our dedication to our heritage is through support to a crown jewel of Masonry in Virginia – the Masonic Home of Virginia.

Many know that the Masonic Home started in 1890 as a home for orphans and shifted to serving adults in 1955. The Grand Lodge of Virginia was not the first to establish a home – many Grand Lodges formed homes to serve the needs of Brothers in the fullness of their years. The Masonic Services Association reported that 34 Grand Lodges currently sponsor and maintain retirement communities programs. The Masonic Home of Virginia is, however, among a small number of Masonic facilities that still requires that applicants be masonically connected. As of September – 219 of our Brothers, their wives and widows reside in the home. The responsibility to maintain the Home and care for our Brothers there falls to us.

As is Cherrydale's custom, we will pool our contributions to the Masonic Home of Virginia during our second stated communication on October 17th and will send them down to Richmond. If you are going to be in Lodge that night – you can bring cash or check. If you can't be here, I ask you please to make a contribution to the Masonic Home of Virginia and send it in early to ensure that your support is included with that of your Brothers in the Lodge. Please make checks payable to the Masonic Home of Virginia send them to Cherrydale Lodge # 42, c/o John W. Frank, Secretary, 3800 Fort Worth Ave., Alexandria, VA 22304.

Brethren – the need is great and now is the time! Honor the legacy of those who have come before us in Freemasonry through your support to the Masonic Home of Virginia.

Fraternally yours,

Scott Aughenbaugh

Steward's Table

Greetings Brethren,

"Autumn leaves start to fall . . . and soon I'll hear old winter' song." (Nat King Cole)

Come join the brethren at the Steward's table in October where we will be serving up a warm bowl of vegetable poached poulet au pot (Chicken and Vegetables) and green salad.

Our second Stated meeting we will tease the taste buds with lasagna rolls and greens. Both meals will be followed up with dessert.

Looking forward to seeing everyone and remember always bring a friend to the table who can become a brother.

Your Sr. Steward,

Ed Jones
