Newsletter Date: April, 2013

FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

We had a fantastic March filled with great programs at Cherrydale. For the Grand Master's visit we actually ran out of space and had an amazing meal. On March 21st, we had the opportunity to listen to MW Elias provide an alternate interpretation of what can be debated/discussed in lodge. Both widened my knowledge and made me proud to be in the presence of some of the giants in masonry.

However, though these programs may be a great reason to come to our lodge in 2013, there still exists a contingent that has not made the trek to 3805 Lee Highway. In April I would enjoy hearing from this group. What is keeping you away? Are there updates that you would like us to pass on? How can we make our meetings more relevant to you?

In April, we will continue to be busy. On April 4th we will have Wor. Carl Weaver's official visit as DIW and on April 18 we plan on having a discussion of Masonic Etiquette. We also plan on having entered apprentice and master mason degrees. For our official visit of the month, I hope we can all make it to Sharon lodge for their very special meeting.

As always I welcome your thoughts. Please drop me a line or email me at scott.aughenbaugh@gmail.com.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Scott Aughenbaugh

From the West

Brethren,

Spring is finally here and Cherrydale is hard at work! We have raised three Master Masons, have conducted both EA and FC degree work, had the Grand Master visit our Lodge, performed Fraternal Visits to other Lodges – and had a great time doing it. Thank you for your willingness to join your brethren in doing the work of Freemasonry!

In the first stated communication of May (yes – a month away) we will have ‘Senior Warden’s Night.’ This is the first of two nights for your line officers to try their hands at sitting in the hot seat and running the Lodge from the next chair up in the line. I ask that you come out and support us all as we take another step in learning the ropes of being a line officer!

We have a special treat set up for that evening – Worshipful Rhey Solomon – Secretary of A. Douglas Smith Lodge of Research #1949, will be coming to present to us a talk on MW John Marshall – the 4th Chief Justice of the US Supreme Court and the 6th Grand Master of Masons in Virginia! It is sure to be a great evening – so I ask that you put it on your calendar now and make a plan to attend.

Respectfully and Fraternaly,

Marc Allen Hone

From the Senior Deacon

Brethren,

In what we hope will become a Cherrydale tradition, there will be a “Salute to the Military” evening at our Stated Communication on June 6th. Coming on the World War II D-Day anniversary, we will be honoring all those who have served their country in the armed forces. A dinner at 6:30PM will be followed by an open program at 7:30PM presented by the National Sojourners under direction of Bill Turner.

We encourage you to “bring a military friend” to dinner and this informative and inspiring program. In honor of the occasion we are striking a commemorative coin, which will be given to everyone present. So that we may better recognize Cherrydale Veteran Brothers, please send me biographical information on your service. You can e-mail it to me at depotts@verizon.net or mail it to me at 604A N. Tazewell St. Arlington Virginia 22203.

S&F,

Brother David Potts,
 Senior Deacon

Steward's Table

Greetings Brethren,

A note from the Steward's Table; Be sure to join us at our first Stated April meeting where the brethren's table will be teasing your taste buds to a festive gathering of mixed meat empanadas, black beans-n-rice, and a green side salad.

At our Second Stated meeting, we will have more festive flavors with a roman style chicken over egg noodles - and yes a garden side salad! Both meals will have a dessert to top that sweet tooth craving.

Looking forward to seeing you there -- and remember to bring a friend you know who could become a brother.
