Cherrydale Lodge #42

Newsletter Date: February, 2012

FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

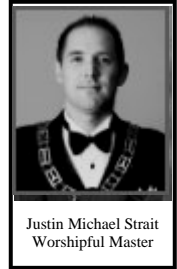

The lodge has been very busy this last month. We opened the lodge of sorrow, held our two stated communications, ritual practices for the officers, worked on catechism with candidates and interested brothers and started work in our committees. The Arlington Food Assistance Center came to our second stated communication and delivered a presentation about their work and how the need in the community has grown by 22%. The lodge collected $335 when passing the hat which Bro. David Potts personally matched dollar-for-dollar for a total donation to $670 on behalf of Cherrydale Lodge to AFAC. Bro. Potts has also set up a day for the lodge to volunteer with AFAC on March 31st from 12:30pm - 2:30pm and we will be bagging vegetables for needy members of our community. Please see him to sign up. We also raised our first brother of the year to the sublime degree of master mason and congratulate him as he continues his Masonic journey.

February looks to continue as a busy month. At the stated communication on 2nd of February Bro. David Potts will be giving a presentation to the lodge on the Development of the Virginia Masonic Ritual. This should prove to be an enlightening program which dives into our own Masonic history. Worshipful Reed Brown will also be visiting as we present him with his 25 year Masonic pin; a truly great occasion in our worthy brother's life. The stated communication on 16 February will be a very short meeting at 6:30pm and then at 7:30pm we will open the tiled table lodge to celebrate Cherrydale Lodge's 90th Anniversary. RSVPs for this event were due on January 26th but if you contact Bro. Marc Hone we may be able to accommodate.

There have also been changes to our website. You will notice that our Cherrydale Lodge website has been updated to include a new Google formatted calendar on the home page that will be updated more regularly and link with the district calendar. Check often for the latest information.

The 54th Masonic District is getting more organized this year and a district website www.vamasonicdistrict54.org has been created as a central point of information from the District Deputy Grand Master. The district calendar on the site links to all lodge calendars in one place and all district officers and their contact information is available on the site for reference.

If you have any suggestions for improvements in the lodge or in the district please let me know.

Justin Michael Strait
Worshipful Master
