FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

Many thanks to you for electing me as Worshipful Master for the coming Masonic year. I consider this a great honor and hope I will serve to your satisfaction. Many thanks to the stalwart officers who have taken the same crucial posts for repeated years: Wor. John Frank and Rt. Wor. Don Strehle. Over the past couple years I have seen a bit of what they do and it's a lot more than what many people may think. In short, any Worshipful Master who thinks he runs the Lodge is woefully mistaken, especially with loyal custodians such as these two. Thanks also to Wor. Jim Norris, who was an excellent caretaker for the Lodge last year, and thanks to the many officers who are taking up the various other positions.

Carl Edward Weaver
Worshipful Master

You all know that the ritual is dear to my heart and we will continue to advance in becoming proficient as a lodge in the work of our Craft. The catechisms will be encouraged for all candidates. However, Wor. Jim Norris, as the LEO, will be running the alternate method, which will allow candidates to advance without the burden of memorization. We all learn in different ways and have different strengths. Everyone will be given the opportunity to advance in the way that makes best sense for him.

If there is something you want to learn so you can be part of a degree or else sit in a chair when an officer is absent, please come see me or someone else who can teach you the part. Everyone's involvement is important and we need as many brothers as we can get who are conversant in the ritual. We have no small parts at Cherrydale Lodge; every position is important. For some roles you need not talk at all and for some roles, such as Chaplain, you can read from a book, so being involved does not necessarily require having a great memory.

I hope that you will join me in making fraternal visits to other lodges, especially for the DDGM's official visits. Bro. Rob Worley will be heading the committee to drive us toward the Hillman Award, which we will receive again this year. Wor. Bro. Norris did a great job getting us that award last year, with the assistance of Bro. Jason Hancock.

We have some great programs lined up for the meetings this year, ranging from Masonic education to general education to more fun stuff as well. I will have a pretty full schedule printed up to distribute at our first stated communication in January.

Brethren, I anticipate a great year and look forward to seeing all of you in Lodge in January. Until then, I wish you all the best for a safe and happy winter holiday.

Fraternally yours,

Carl Edward Weaver

Worshipful Master
