FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

We had a couple great communications in February. First we had Wor. Andrew Hammer, who spoke about his book, Observing the Craft: The Pursuit of Excellence in Masonic Labour and Observance. Wor. Hammer shared some interesting thoughts with us and urged us to examine why we became Masons and what being a Mason means. Next we had Wor. John Bullach, who spoke about the York Rite. Wor. Bullach is a true expert and one of my personal mentors in Freemasonry, and I always enjoy hearing him speak.

Looking forward to March, we will receive our District Deputy Grand Master, Right Wor. Lauris Eek, on March 3. Officers should wear tuxedos or black suits with white gloves. This is the most important night in our Masonic year and I appreciate your attendance and support of our DDGM. On March 17 we will have the official visit of our District Instructor of Work, Right Wor. Bruce Palmer.

In April we will have a very special event. April 7 will be the District 54 Masters Night. Masters from the other five lodges in the district will assume the officers' chairs and assist in opening and closing the lodge. We will have a speaker that night as well, a great program, and hopefully some fraternal visits to Cherrydale. Rounding out April, on the 21st Wor. Steve Banowitz, our District Educational Officer, will be making his official visit.

We had visits from two of our charities we support. One was Arlington Food Assistance Center, which was glad to have the many food donations we were able to provide. Thank you, brethren, for your generosity. Please continue to bring canned goods and other non-perishable items to Lodge as you are able. One can of food is not much and is a whole lot more than zero cans, so don't think that there is a required minimum. We also had a visit from the Lions Club, which was eager to collect the eyeglasses, cell phones, inkjet cartridges and hearing aids we collected for them. Please continue to bring these items to support their good work.

We had our first degree of the year, in which we welcomed three new Fellowcrafts into the fold. We are looking at a few more FC degrees and then, of course, MM degrees, as time marches forward. Your assistance is greatly appreciated in our degree work and our candidates appreciate your attendance. More members present makes for a more impressive ceremony.

Let's get this winter nonsense wrapped up. It's time for warmer temperatures.

Stay warm,

Carl E. Weaver
