FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

The heat of summer is behind us and it looks like stormy days ahead. Not for the lodge of course but our weather is certainly changing. That being said please remember that we are now back to two meetings a month again.

September 6th will be an open program before lodge at 7:30 PM. This is open to Masons and Non-Masons.

September 20th we will have our planned visit from the District Instructor of Work.

September 28th is Ladies Night at the Fairfax Army Navy Club from 6-PM.

Our fair booth in August at the Arlington County Fair was again a success and I thank Bro. David Potts for taking over the reigns of that event from me this year and a job well done. Thanks also goes out to all the brothers who spent time at the booth meeting the public and spreading Masonic light.

The next three months will be fairly busy as we close out this Masonic year. In October we will have a visit from our Masonic Home Ambassador for Founders Night and one of our Warden's Nights. In November we will have our second Warden's Night. We also expect to be conferring some degrees so we will announce that as soon as we have something finalized.

Fraternally yours,

Justin Michael Strait
