FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

It definitely feels like fall has descended upon us. As the cool weather increases, let us remember the warmth in our hearts for each other and others who can benefit from our continued charity. Please bring something to share with the food bank if you can. Your generosity will mean a great deal for those in need.

Carl Edward Weaver
Worshipful Master

We have a great month coming up in November. At our first stated we will have Wor. William G. L. Turner, National President of the National Sojourners. Wor. Bill and his wonderful wife will present a historical program about our flag, and will do a toast to the flag afterward. If you have not seen Wor. Bill do his presentations, you are in for a real treat. This presentation will be before we open the lodge, so feel free to bring a spouse or maybe a friend who is a potential Mason.

On the second stated in November we will mostly take care of some annual lodge business but will also have some important ritual presented. Bro. Marc Hone will be returning the Master Mason catechism that evening, so please show up to support him in this endeavor.

Bro. Robert Worley also recently returned the Master Mason catechism. Congratulations, Bro. Rob! Anyone who wants to learn the catechisms is strongly encouraged to do so. We have a good number of brothers who have learned them, so we can surely find somebody to assist you. Let me know if you want to do this.

Elections are on Dec. 3. Please be present that evening to help choose the officers for next year. This is the one night per year the Lodge becomes a democracy, so enjoy it while you can! This is an important meeting, so please make a special effort to attend.

I am sure you are all excited to see family and friends for Thanksgiving. Something you might not know is that Bro. and President George Washington proclaimed the first official Thanksgiving back in 1789. It was a day to be set aside for service to God and solemn reflection upon the manifold blessings bestowed upon the people. Let us be together now in spirit, in that same sense of awe and reverence. Have a great holiday and safe travels if you are going out of town.
