FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

Our recent Past Masters Night was one of the most fun nights I have ever had at Cherrydale. Seeing the many Masonic generations all in one room was a real thrill to me. Wor. Gary Hennig gave an interesting talk with many highlights from Cherrydale's history. Among the topics he brought up was what various members had donated to the Lodge over the years – columns, flags, jewels, ashlars, etc. It got me thinking about what kind of legacy I want to leave, not just as a soon-to-be Past Master, but as a member.

I am reminded of Antoine de Saint-Expuéry, who wrote, "To be a man is to be aware, when setting one stone, that you are building a world." Saint-Expuéry was not a Mason, from what I could determine, but he was a wise man. It makes me hope that what I have done this year properly honors and continues the good works of Masters who have come before me and helps, even if in a small way, to build the temple whose walls help form our most sacred of refuges. We should all remember this principle as we come together as brothers, with the knowledge that the fraternal bonds of our gentle craft are as sacred as anything else we could hope to produce in this world, inside or outside the Lodge.

It is the time of harvest, normally a time of plenty, the time when Boaz met Ruth as she gleaned in his fields. At that time, the time of Judges, there was a famine, thus necessitating Ruth's actions. It is again a time of hunger for many, a time of need. Especially at this time, and as autumn leads us surely into winter, let us remember those less fortunate. If you can afford it, please bring something to donate to the Arlington Food Assistance Center. If each of us brings a can to donate at each meeting, we can make a big difference together. AFAC does good and important work for our community and it is a blessing to be able to help.

Coming up we will have RW Howard Sobel for Founders Day on Oct. 6. Please make a contribution to the Masonic Home of Virginia if you can. We can pool our donations and make a big splash of a gift to the Home. Please make checks payable to the Masonic Home of Virginia send them to Cherrydale Lodge # 42, c/o John W. Frank, Secretary, 3800 Fort Worth Ave., Alexandria, VA 22304.

On Oct. 20 we have on the schedule Bro. Rob Worley, who will return the Master Mason catechism. In addition, RW Lauris Eek will present a 50-year certificate to Bro. George Freeman. I am trying to fit something else in there as well but do not have it lined up yet.

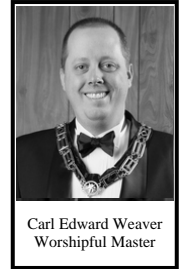

Ongoing, on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 we have classes for our new Master Masons from the one-day conferral. Our newest brothers must be certified by the end of October, so these classes are crucial.

Finally, Brethren, think about this: What legacy will you leave to your Lodge? How will Cherrydale Lodge, or the world, for that matter, be better for having had you as a member? It is something we should all consider from time to time.

Fraternally yours,

Carl Edward Weaver
