FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

Summer is finally rolling around – and with the rising temperatures comes more time to spend with family, friends and Brothers in the many parks and attractions for which our nation's capital is known. I hope that you will take the time to enjoy them and invite along a Brother from Lodge to enjoy fellowship outside our stated meetings.

Speaking of our meetings, we return to our normal schedule in June with two stated meetings. At our first stated, on June 5th, we are having a Military Appreciation night. The presentation will be open and before the Lodge meeting. Right Worshipful John Schroeder will present a talk entitled 'Friend to Friend,' and will look at some stories of Freemasonry during the Civil War. Please invite any friends you know who might be interested in a great presentation and wonderful evening. Our second stated, June 19th, will have a presentation called "Our Colonial Brethren" – and it will discuss the differences between Masonry at its founding in the United States and today. Would you be able to enter a Lodge in 1776 and be received as a Brother, or would you be exposed as a Cowan and sent out into the night? Come to Lodge on the 19th and find out!

Finally, if you have anyone you feel is deserving of recognition by being awarded one of our "Community Builder's Awards" – please let me know soonest. We are closing up the selection and will make the award shortly, and I don't want a worthy nominee to miss out.

Enjoy the warmer weather and the always warm Brotherhood of your Lodge. Until next we meet, I am honored to remain;

Respectfully and Fraternaly,

Marc
